

We wish you joy...

Take your time to get to know him or her. Don't worry too much. Remember to also take care of yourself no matter what. Everything in its season. Parenthood is an experience far greater than we could fathom beforehand. Being parents shifts the world we thought was important for us. It opens our vision, enlarges our heart and alters our priorities... for the best! Cherish the smiles, the laughs, the silly falls and the foolishness. They are precious. Try to laugh. It covers a multitude of situations. Try to appreciate these early moments, as difficult as they may be, because they pass so quickly. You have just started the journey of a lifetime!

With a world of love,
